18. RISK STATEMENT

- 18.1. Rule 4 of the RRS states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or to continue to race is hers alone." Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event, each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:
 - 18.1.1. They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
 - 18.1.2. They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
 - 18.1.3. They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omissions;
 - 18.1.4. Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
 - 18.1.5. The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the race organizer does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
 - 18.1.6. The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;
 - 18.1.7. The fact that the Race Committee conducts inspections, or not, of a boat does not reduce the responsibilities of each competitor set out in this Notice of Race.

19. INSURANCE

- 19.1. Competitors shall possess valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of 1 million euros.
- 19.2. Coaches and support boat drivers shall also have valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of 1.5 million euros.
- 19.3. Failure to provide evidence of insurance cover may be penalized by exclusion from the event.

20. DRUG TESTING

- 20.1. Competitors are reminded of the World Sailing rules and regulations concerning the use of banned methods and substances. Drug testing may take place during the event.

21. TELEVISION AND MEDIA

- 21.1. In registering for the event, competitors automatically grant to the LOA and the International RS:X Olympic Windsurfing Class Association the right in perpetuity to make, use and show from time to time at their discretion, any motion pictures, still pictures and live, taped or filmed television and other reproductions of them, taken during the period of the event, for the said Championship as defined in the Notice of Race and Sailing Instructions in which he/she participates without compensation.

22. OFFICIAL CEREMONIES & DRESS CODE

- 22.1. Competitors should attend the Prize Giving Ceremony.
 - 22.1.1. Smart casual clothes will be worn.
