Title: RS:X Equipment at the Olympic Games

Subtitle: Sailor's own equipment at the Olympic Games

A submission from: RS:X Class President – Carlo Dalla Vedova

Purpose or Objective

To allow sailors to use their own equipment at the Olympic Games.

Proposal

Sailors may use at the Olympic Games their own equipment on the following conditions:

1. Every competitor may decide to bring his/her own (BYO – 'bring your own') or to use the equipment provided by LOA.
2. Equipment to be used as BYO shall be mast, boom and fin.
3. One set of the equipment can be registered as BYO with following limitations
 - a. Mast to be used – series numbers from 2013
 - b. Fin to be used – series numbers from 09/2013
4. The board and sail shall be provided by the LOA only.
5. The procedure and rules to use the BYO system:
 - a. Equipment shall be brought to the venue when supplied equipment is distributed.
 - b. After the BYO equipment breakdown, LOA's provided equipment shall be used only.

Current Position

The RS:X equipment is provided by the organizer of the Olympic Games

Reason

To allow the sailors to use the equipment they have used to qualify to the Olympic Games.
